

DEDICATE BOUNDARY STONE.

Impressive Ceremonies Conducted by John Lindsay Chapter, D. A. R.

The John Lindsay Chapter of the D. A. R. dedicated the District boundary stone on Walker road, west of Good Hope Wednesday with impressive ceremonies. The Rev. John Britten Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, led the devotional exercises. Mrs. Ellis Logan, regent of the chapter, introduced the speakers.

The principal address was that of Senator Charles S. Thomas, of Colorado, who paid a high tribute to the patriotic services of American women from Revolutionary times to the present.

Mrs. J. Edson Briggs, chairman of the historic works committee, gave an interesting outline of the work accomplished by the John Lindsay Chapter during the last two years. Mrs. George P. Conway, chairman of the preservation of historic spots and records, gave a resume of the work accomplished by the various chapters, after which Mrs. Viola Barbour spoke on "The History of the Boundary Stones." Mrs. William Hyde Talbott, of Maryland, State chairman of old trails and roads committee, spoke of the work of her associates.

The iron band was removed from the boundary stone by J. Edson Briggs, master of ceremonies. A large American flag and floral wreath were presented by two of the great-grandchildren of John Lindsay, Miss Elizabeth Naylor Sawtelle and Trimble Sawtelle, assisted by Masters Robert Hamilton and Russell Bowen. Mrs. Charles S. Thomas, wife of Senator Thomas and vice president general of the National Society of the D. A. R., received the floral tribute from the children.

J. Edson Briggs sealed the gate and presented the key to the chapter.

One hundred and fifty school children, carrying flags and flowers, which were later placed around the base of District boundary stone, No. 6, took part in the dedication of that historic site at Mount Ranier Friday. The children, assisted by about 100 members of the D. A. R., sang "America" and "The Star-Spangled Banner" under the leadership of Mrs. Melville Lindsay.

The Rev. Henry Ranck delivered the opening prayer, which was followed by an address by Mrs. Gaius M. Brumbaugh, State regent and a member of Livingston Manor Chapter, under whose auspices the dedication ceremonies were conducted. Addresses were also made by the Rev. Dr. John Brittan Clarke, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church; Mrs. George Conway, chairman of the historic spots committee, and Mrs. Amherst W. Barber, secretary of the historic spots committee. The Rev. John T. Huddle pronounced the benediction.
